Tickets Available For Senior Gala Dinner-Dance

(Kaysville, Utah) – The theme for the eighth annual Senior Gala Dinner-Dance is “Those Were The Days.” Hosted by Davis County Health Department’s Senior Services on Wednesday, April 22, 6-9 p.m., the dinner, floorshow, and dancing to live Big Band music are again the festivities planned for a senior citizens “senior prom.”

“This is our eighth year partnering with Davis High School’s Jazz Band and with Davis Behavioral Health to bring an atmosphere of fun, food, and friends to enjoy an evening packed with entertainment,” said Kristy Cottrell, division director over the county health department’s Senior Services programs. “I’m both pleased and amazed by the crowd of seniors and ‘senior supporters’ who come out to our annual dinner-dance to listen or dance to the live Big Band music.”

“We purposely keep the price low – $7.50 per person – to make this dinner-dance affordable,” said Cottrell. Tickets can be purchased by the April 15 deadline at the Autumn Glow Senior Activity Center (801-544-1235) in Kaysville, the Golden Years Senior Activity Center (801-295-3479) in Bountiful, and the North Davis Senior Activity Center (801-525-5080) in Clearfield.

The “Best Dress” event is in the Davis High School Commons and cafeteria at 325 South Main in Kaysville. The school’s Jazz Band along with several talented student singers and dancers perform as the Moonlight Orchestra, Moonlight Singers, and Moonlight Dancers providing a floorshow and dance music from the Big Band era.

“We also hope that many ‘senior supporters’ decide to escort or even dance with their favorite senior relative, friend, or neighbor,” said Cottrell.

Making this event possible are volunteers and donations from local community partners including: Davis High School, Davis High School Jazz Band and student supporters, Davis Behavioral Health, and the Davis County Health Department staff.
